Montana Wildlife Services specialist Adam Baca monitors a fladry perimeter. While effective, fladry needs to be maintained to ensure flags haven’t fallen in melting snow and nothing has shorted its embedded electric wire. Photo by Rob G. Green, from “Seeing Red” in On Land Vol. 5
ON LAND IS THE MEDIA BRAND OF THE WESTERN LANDOWNERS ALLIANCE. WE ARE A NON-PROFIT COMMITTED TO TELLING A NEW STORY OF LAND STEWARDSHIP IN THE WEST.

Wise stewardship of our lands and natural resources is the fundamental challenge of our time. If we are to recover the American West to health, abundance, and justice, we need a new story about our relationship to land, rooted in an ethic of stewardship. On Land brings forth that story clearly and beautifully, in the voices of the people who are living it, at the bleeding edge of a future that puts people and nature together again for the benefit of both.

We raise the voices of those who tend land on a daily basis, sharing their experiences, successes, challenges and perspectives in the interest of shaping a better world for current and future generations. We explore public policies, share knowledge and information on land stewardship, and highlight people and ideas making a difference in the West and beyond.

Help us tell that story. Your sponsorship supports storytelling critical to the future of the West.

New Mexico rancher Betty Shahan talks about her passion for the watershed she stewards.
